DEDICATION

We, the students of Liberty Union High School, dedicate this annual to Mr. Pendry, Mr. Phelps and "Speck," the custodians, who help keep our school a beautiful, clean and healthful place in which to live, work, and play. In the years we have known them, they have never failed to fulfill our countless requests, to lend us tools, to clean up after us, to unlock doors and to turn the furnace on and off for us; and never were these things done unwillingly. We hope that this annual will serve as a token of our thanks to them.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

This has been a year of real achievement at Liberty. Through the cooperative effort of the Board of Trustees, faculty and students, a substantial progress has been made in all our activities and a sound program for the expansion of our school plant and educational facilities has been initiated. With all of us planning and working together we can be confident that our school will continue to be faithful to its splendid traditions.

O U R

JUNE 3, 1975—

The information for this article was secured through the courtesy of MR. WILLIAM FERGUSON, who, during his extensive travels, has managed to keep track of his former classmates. If you would like to show your appreciation for the article and have a dime to spare for a cup of coffee, you may find Mr. Ferguson on any railroad track.

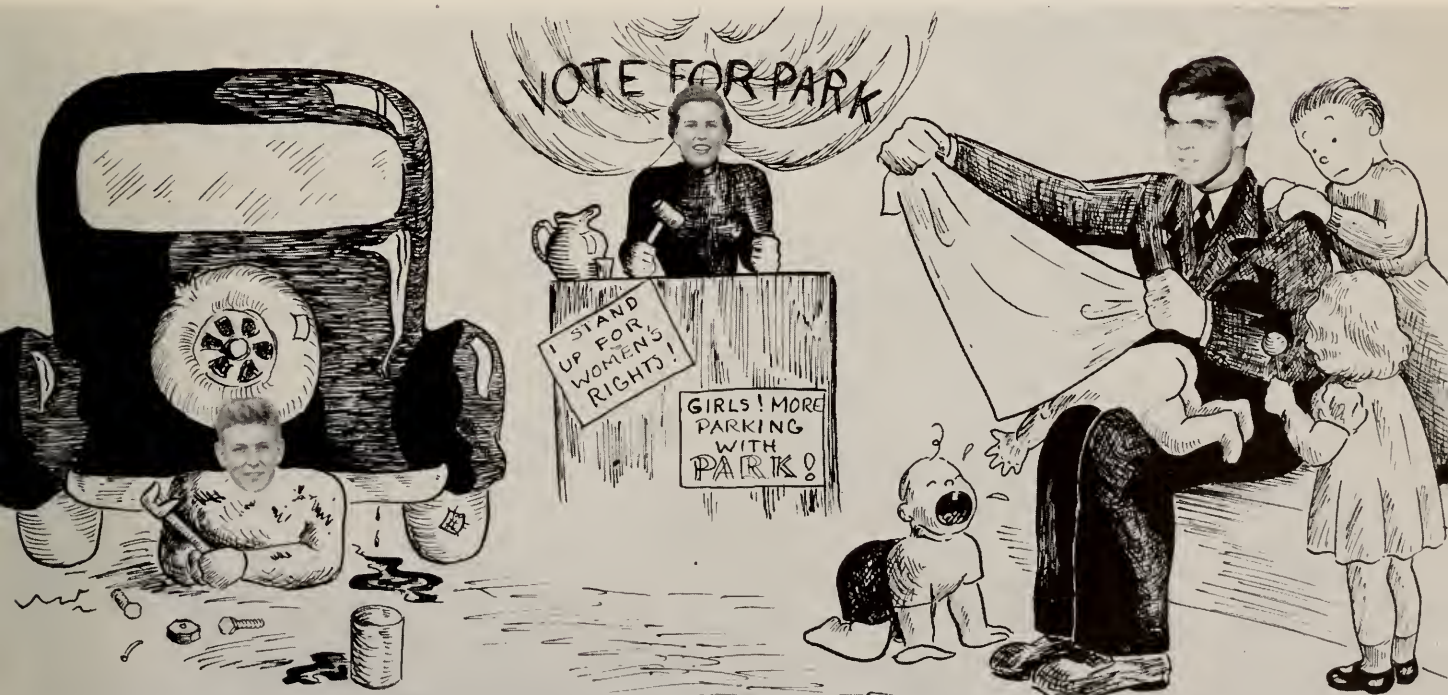

ANTOINETTE AMBROSINO, in order to support her six kids, is now scrubbing floors in the Brentwood Hotel, owned by MARION COELHO. TINO BACCHINI is doing very well with his ravioli factory, the hottest spot in town. Society is buzzing about MR. GEORGE GAMBEL, the oil tycoon, who was seen at the Stork Club with his secretary, MARY ANN BARTELS. As for ALVIN BECKER, he's harassed and hen-pecked. (see illus.) DOROTHY CRAWFORD has a tidy business making deep freeze units. EUGENE BORING was last seen crossing the border, with DON (Fearless) PEDERSON, the F.B.I. agent, at his heels. CARL CASEY, tired of cars, is spinning hookers in rocket ships manufactured by LOUIE CHAVEZ—and Corky. WANDA COPPEDGE is employed as a salesgirl by the Variety Store, and CAROL CLARK is trying to invent something to put dentists out of business. LEO COSTA is a laborer on LEROY WALKER'S ranch, the biggest durn hawg ranch in the West. EDIE BIANCHINI became a nurse and married a patient. BETTY ROUGH also married one of her own patients. Incidentally, she's a veterinarian. VI DE BORBA has had less accidents since using radar in her car. LEROY GREENWOOD is conductor of the Boston Symphony, and GILBERT DOMINGUEZ and ARDEL FREY now manage the Brooklyn Dodgers. JOANNE DUFF is a house mother at "Boy's Town," and DESSIE FOREHAND was first to discover life on Mars. HORTENSE DURAN has become a bartender. PAULINE FRAZIER is an eminent clarinetist, while JOE FREITAS is content merely to understudy Sinatra. BEA GONSALVES slaves over a hot stove as head cook at the Blue Moon. EVELYN GUTIERREZ was arrested for bigamy, but we know she is innocent. She will probably be acquitted since every member of the jury is her husband. DON GUERNSEY is author of the best seller, "Rowdys' Agreement." LEWIS GARNER'S model agency employs NORINE JEPSEN, model for the current Alka-seltzer advertisement series. As for CAROLYN LEMOIN, she's still mad about Dewey, and PETE LEWIS is in disgrace since his engineering marvel, the 2nd Bay Bridge, collapsed. BETTY PASTOR and BUB LONG are doing well as a mammy singer and lion tamer, respectively. BLINKY LOZANO is having a gay time in gay Paree, and HAROLD MARTIN recently published a dictionary notable for its original spelling. MABEL MENDEZ is announcer for the MISQUEZ SISTERS, singers who are experienced in locker room duets. DOROTHY ODEN rose to high fame as a comic strip writer—only to lose her popularity by insisting on wearing the clothes she designed for her characters. JANET PARK is the newly elected mayor of Brentwood, and JEAN PEREIRA makes her living as a crafts teacher. VERNON PITAU's sixth wife just soaked him for his sixth million. CHARLENE SMITH is a missionary in Africa, and NANCY STUART, as cashier of Joe's Beanery, still takes people's money. MARIE SWEENEY is the movie star you find in every prophecy. MIN NIYAMA and MITSUO HENMI were awarded the 1967 Nobel Prize for physics. BETTY TEMPS? Well, we knew she'd go bad. DEL VRMEER is still having trouble with his model A, and ANNA LEE WALLIS spills soup daily as a waitress. Her latest victim is SHIRLEY WHITE, who edits the "Advice to the Lovelorn" column in the Brentwood News. SUMIO TANIGUCHI has a hot time with his job as an iceman. AKIKO YAGI, to the joy of geometry students, has disapproved the Pythagorean Theorem. CRUZ ZAMORA married a guy named Zybelski and still comes last on alphabetical lists.

You may have noticed that many members of the Class of '48 have become famous. This is due, no doubt, to the expert guidance of our advisor Mr. Ostrom, who is now back at San Quentin. We were unable to ascertain whether he is teaching at San Quentin or whether they finally caught him for that chair he broke in Student Affairs.

LIBERTY LION STAFF

Rushing around with worried looks on our faces seems to be a characteristic of Annual staff members, but between our frantic work to meet deadlines we also found time for the grave necessity of financing the Annual through coke sales, Annual sales and dances. Our Sadie Hawkins Dance in November gave the women their opportunity of the year.

We hope this Annual will be a source of enjoyment in years to come.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

This is the group that makes history in Liberty Union High School by debating and voting on the various problems confronting our Student Body. The presidents and representatives of the classes and organizations comprise the Student Affairs committee.

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION

If you have three A's and a B on your report card for the semester, then you are eligible for membership in the C. S. F. Besides wearing the gold club pins, the members enjoy a few extra privileges and engage in a few activities. This year, after raising the treasury fund by a record dance, the club planned to visit a college campus.

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

Don't you believe it! The Judiciary Committee isn't trying to brow-beat you. In fact they are trying to see that the students are fairly treated in this matter of demerits. A recent check-up shows that the committee gives more merits than demerits.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The G. A. A. is composed of a group of girls who are interested in sports. They are quite an active group; among their activities are the annual Mothers' Tea, Boys' Block L party, swimming parties, several play-days held both here and at other high schools, and, of course, the annual challenge of the teachers to play basketball with the senior girls of the G. A. A.

Back row: Miss Beemer, advisor; Diana Martin, Judy Ballard, Cora Laird, Alice Arhontes, Bev Shive, Cruz Zamora, Gladys Pitau, Thelma Wallis, Mildred Clemons, Bette Brown, Wanda Long, Pat Stanford, Dolores Nance. GIRLS' LEAGUE COUNCIL

Every girl in school belongs to the Girls' League. That's why this smaller group of active girls is needed to plan the year's program. It is largely responsible for the success of the Girls' Hi Jinx, the Mothers' Tea, and other girls' activities. After beginning plans on the theme for the Mothers' Tea, the group planned a trip to Crockett to meet with the councils of other Girls' Leagues in the county.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The main requirement for membership in the F. H. A. is to be enrolled in one of the home economics classes offered by the school. Our local group has recently joined the national F. H. A. The purpose of the organization is to sponsor interest in home economics, and the members get their practice through cooking and serving at the Mothers' Tea and at other events.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

This year, as usual, the Future Farmers were ahead of everyone else with the first dance of the year, the F.F.A. Barn Dance. Other projects included trips to the Cow Palace with their entries.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

This club, which meets once a week after school, is open to any student who is interested. Its purpose is to instruct the students in the elementary phases of photography. In making use of their knowledge, they take pictures of the major school activities and print them for the Annual.

NEWSPAPER CLUB

The lads and lasses of Liberty took a big step forward this year with the formation of a successful Newspaper Club. An eight page mimeographed paper was written, edited and published each week and met with wholehearted student body approval and support. Next year the club hopes to expand into a journalism class so that an even better paper will result.

CADET CORPS

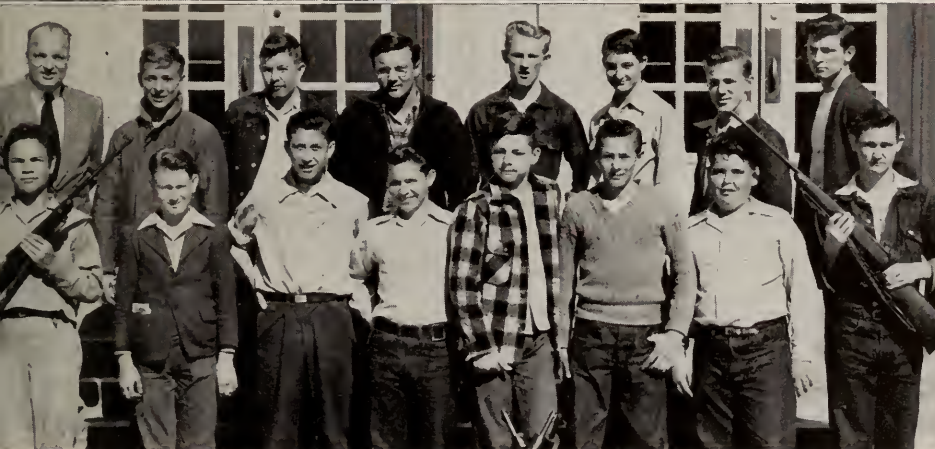

The Cadet Corps of Liberty Union High School, under the command of Second Lieutenant James Ellison, displayed the good results of their year-long training in drill and marksmanship at the review held on May 5th. The Cadets were handicapped for a good part of the year by lack of uniforms.

Swanee Wilson, Cameron Linn, Bill Tuttle, Bob Lavinder, James Tuck, Odell Reece, Bob Helms, Jack Wilkins, Bob Pasley, Wayne Riley.

RIFLE CLUB

Approximately fifteen active members of the Rifle Club meet every Monday and Wednesday after school to practice marksmanship under the qualifications of the National Rifle Association. By the end of the year when the awards were given out, quite a few of the members had developed into experts.

CHORUS

Although some members of the Chorus still think the music staff has six lines, we have learned a great deal about music and had a lot of fun. Our activities included Christmas caroling, a program for the P. T. A., a few numbers for the Mothers' Tea and, of course, the Spring Concert.

BAND

Although a large portion of our band was rather inexperienced at the beginning of the year, they did a great job in playing at a few of the basketball games and in marching for the Lion's Club Halloween parade. Their greatest efforts were centered on the Spring Concert.

RALLY COMMITTEE

The duties of the Rally Committee consist of organizing rallies and cheering sections, "policing" during games, and improving school spirit in any way then can. The yell leaders are automatically members, but the others on the committee are appointed by Student Affairs.

Bev Higgins, Corky Crist, Pete McKnight.

YELL LEADERS

This year's yell leaders will long be remembered at Liberty for their seemingly endless vim, vigor and vitality. Rarely, if ever missing a game, they did all they could to keep up school spirit.

DRAMATICS CLUB

This distinguished looking group of actors and actresses make up the Dramatics Club. The members, with their advisor, Mr. Van Vleck, take an active part in the school plays and plan entertainment for some of the student body meetings.

"THE HENPECKED HUSBAND"

A domineering wife and mother-in-law (Lois Welches and Catherine Callaghan, respectively) caused the unfortunate husband (Harold Martin) to take drastic measures to regain the upper hand in his household. The supporting cast included Bill Shellenberger, Bob Crowell, Barbara Rennels, John McKinzie, Verna Beville, Betty Boring, Frances Seeno, Pearl Ball and Bill Ferguson. The comedy was presented on April eighth and ninth to an enthusiastic audience. Hard work? Yes—but fun!!!

BOYS' BLOCK L

In the Boys' Block L, as well as in the Girls' Block L, the membership has increased considerably, mainly because so many more boys are participating in sports. There are now approximately thirty members in the Block L and we are expecting a few more during the baseball and track seasons.

FOOTBALL

Although we didn't have a very successful season our boys were in there fighting all the time. The team was rather inexperienced this year, but we are eagerly looking forward to a championship next season when most of the first string will be back.

BASEBALL

With veteran batsmen Duke, Celoni and Anderson leading the hit parade and pitching aces Pitau and Becker sparking the defense, the Lion baseball squad tackled a tough seventeen game schedule and won most of them. TRACK

Unfortunately this Annual must be completed long before the track season is over, so we are not able to give you the final results of the season. Our hopes were high, however, after the first meet, when the promising talents of many of our boys served in nearly defeating Albany.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Thank Miss Beemer for the enthusiasm and zeal shown towards Girls' Sports throughout the school year. Interclass competition was keen when the girls engaged in noon basketball and volleyball. Especially popular were folk dancing, basketball and tennis, though a wide range of sports beginning with hockey and ending with archery and badminton, was offered.
